From the Heart of the Director.....

In 1993, my family was shaken by the death of our mom, Jeanie, at 58, to ovarian cancer. In the Spring of 1994, her hand touched the heart of Deacon Richard Lombard to touch my shoulder and the dream of Journey Home was born. It is now 25 years later and we remember that moment like it was yesterday. Twenty years ago, this Mother's Day Weekend, we will celebrate Journey Home becoming a reality.

My new family now includes my daughter-in-law, Juli, and my new son-in-law, Mike, along with hundreds of volunteers, over 500 residents and their families. To say I am blessed seems so small in comparison to the lives touched by and within our home.

We welcome all of you, new and old, and all of the Greece community who have supported and loved us on this journey, to celebrate with us the beginning of the next 20 years! We are excited to continue to welcome new people into our fold, to share in their lives, to hold our residents’ hands as they journey and to wave goodbye as they are called home.

I am honored, I am touched, I am grateful and forever humbled.

Peace,

Your Director, Tracey
A Place Called Journey Home

By Volunteer, Fred L. Koch

When the end of life is coming near,
And you want to push aside all fear.
When death will soon be at your door,
and Love and Peace is what you’re longing for,
There’s a place called JOURNEY HOME

To ease the pain and reduce the stress,
For comfort care, there should be no less.
Where suffering can be put to rest,
And for your final days to be your best,
There’s a place called JOURNEY HOME

Where peace and dignity abound,
Where God’s protective hands surround.
For those you love to gather round,
When your path is surely Heaven bound,
There’s a place called JOURNEY HOME

To pass from life to death to life reborn,
In the arms of love, no need to mourn.
When the Lord has wrapped you in His love,
And takes you to His home above,
There’s a place called journey home

There’s a place called JOURNEY HOME
◊ In the living room of the Jagla’s, we gathered, we prayed, then, from a dream, Journey Home was made.
◊ Proud to be the first home in Western Monroe County, grateful to be blessed with God’s bounty.
◊ 1995 we received incorporation, 501-C3 allowed us donation.
◊ 1996, the Perotto family gave us a home and rented the land, moving 185 sq. feet, Journey Home will stand!
◊ In our 17th year we purchased the land, from the gracious gift of Vern and Girlie Goodwin’s hand.
◊ When our first resident, Beth Johnson, came through the door, she set her suitcase right on the floor.
◊ She talked about feeling at peace, a word 17 years later, resident’s brother repeats.
◊ We’ve welcomed all ages from 28 to 102. So many gentle lives welcomed, who knew?
◊ Memorial Brick Walkway began in 2000, now 19 years later, bricks close to a thousand.
◊ We’ve had our share of sadness, Nancy Vogt, our nurse, died in our arms following her husband who died here first.
◊ Chris Jones, RN, another nurse, too. We’ve lost volunteers and their families, too.
◊ It bears mentioning Ben Wild’s name, as he spearheaded building our decks not once, but twice. Bringing carpentry students from Edison Tech, how nice! They also built our basement and Ben the cupboards in our office and kitchen. How grateful are we for Ben, thrice.
◊ We laughed and we froze at many a Greece Community Festival Days. From popsicles to cotton candy, we were always amazed.
◊ We’ve had pizza fests, thanks to our hosts, Holy Name of Jesus and St. Mark’s, these we thank the most.
◊ 1996 we started with Dinner Theaters at Red Fedele’s, Ridgemont and the Country Club Brook Lea. Phyllis Contestable, Dady Brothers, Sky Sands and the Athena Show Choir sang with glee.
◊ Chris Wilson and a Mystery Dinner of late. Looking forward to May 2nd—our next big date!
◊ Golf Tournaments led by Dave Wakefield, The Mazzeo’s - Carol and Joe, Don Friga and now Warren Hasman, 24 years blessed with little rain and no snow.
◊ Chuck, our resident, a professional pilot went to one last Blue Angels air show, with future pilot Jeremy Jagla in tow.
◊ We have received money from all over the town, so many gifts, too many to write down.
◊ From schools and their clubs, we’ve been gifted with food and such, the churches have blessed us we are grateful so much!
◊ We have had cash raffles, trip raffles, soup mixes and cookie mix too. Keeping our volunteers with much to do.
◊ Private people have helped in a generous way, from quilts, to origami angels, touching us and helping to get us to today.
◊ Partner Pledge since the beginning and $9.94 or more, have gifted us with decent monies to keep open our door.
◊ We have been given awards and baskets galore, from the Meeson family just down from 994.
◊ Journey Home even hosted the wedding of Richard and Peggy sent home for their honeymoon. You see, we are not a house of doom!
◊ In 2013 we joined the new age. You can now view our web site and not have to turn a page.
◊ Donations can now be done on our site, through PayPal or Amazon Smile to fill our coiffeurs, one might.
◊ Our home is being refreshed and renewed, some work in the kitchen, the office, the bathrooms with new showers and floors. We have even had to replace two expensive new doors.
◊ Two new furnaces and we now have zoned heat. Forever grateful to the Rochester Labor Unions and Matthew Builders owner, Pete.
◊ 22 years ago they gave us their gifts and skills. It is with gratitude and joy, our cup overspills.

We celebrate life every day of our lives and it is in thanks to you, we are able to survive.

May you all be blessed on the journey home, and always remember, you are never alone.

Peace our dear friends, our volunteers, our families, our residents and their families too. To our absolutely wonderful community in Greece and beyond. It has been an honor; we look forward to many more years with you!
